MR. 'NORWOOD'S SPEECH-THE STATE DEBT.—We commence to-day the publication of the speech of Jno. W. Norwood, Esq., Senator from Orange, made in the Legislature before the recess, in regard to the settlement of the State debt:

Mr. Norwood's ability, character, ripe experience, and mature consideration of the subject on which his remarks are submitted, entitle his opinions to consideration and respect. We do not concur in all Mr. Norwood's conclusions, but the public desire to hear what he has to say on a matter of such vital importance to the whole State as the settlement of the public debt.

Our own opinion is, that no arrangement by the General Assembly can be made with our creditors in the present condition of the country that will satisfy both, the people and the bond-holders. All that can be done will be the appointment of a Commission to confer with our creditors on the subject, and report to the next Legislature.

> [For the Daily News. City Financies.

MR. EDITOR:-In Sunday moining's NEWS, under the heading of "City Finances," a correspondent signing himself a "Tay-Payer" expresses the hope that all really interested in the prosperity of the city of Raleigh, will oppose the proposition to fund the floating debt of the city. This correspondent belongs to either one of two classes of our citizens. One class is composed of that portion of our community who know nothing whatever of our financial condition as a corporation, and hence are not in a condition to give advice. The other belongs to the "shaving class," who feed and fatten upon the financial difficulties of the city. We suspect the writer in question belongs to the latter class, for none but an inwithin two miles of any place of terested party could write as he does. worship in Stokes county, on the day of such worship, was taken up and argument whatever, but deals "glittering generalities," and the ordinary clap--trap of the special pleader, who has an eye to the "main chance." upon the motion of Gen. Gorman, of the Board of Commissioners, the Clerk to the Board, Mr. Grausman, was authorized and instructed to report the amount of the debt of the the whole debt was, including the and scrip debt. Mr. Grausman reported the debt to be about $125,000 altogether, including the $50,000 of "Market House" bonds. Of this $125,000 was included the "short" bonds, issued for the purpose of taking up the "scrip" debt, and improving the credit of the city. By "short" three years, which were issued under the general charter act. By advice of eminent financiers, this policy (of issuing "short" bonds) was attempted for the purpose of taking up the scrip or floating debt of the city, but it was found it did not work, as capitalists were loth to invest therein, as no provision of law was in force requiring the principal and interest to be paid in cash, and they were considered no better than the floating

The proposition which this sapient "tax payer" objects to is this: To fund the entire floating debt of the city, all the scrip that is now in circulation, into thirty year bonds, and require the taxes accruing to pay the principal and interest, which shall be placed in the hands of the Commissioner of the Sinking Fund, instead of its being paid over to the corporation Treasurer, and to forbid, under penalty, the Commissioners hereafter to expend a single dollar more than is paid into the Treasury for taxes. Be it remembered, just here, that the Commissioners are limited in taxation, and cannot collect one cent more than they now collect for the ordinary expenses of

Now, what is the present condition of the city? Without this special act authorizing the funding of the floating debt, the $75,000 in circulation is in the hands of the community. It is good, dollar for dollar, for current taxes. As a consequence the $45,000 yearly city taxes is paid almost entirely in city scrip. No greenbacks, of any consequence, is paid into the Treasury. It is all in "scrip." The police, officers and all other expenses of the city are allowed monthly. As there is no money in the Treasury when these liabilities are allowed by the Board, after thorough examination by a committee, the Clerk issues "scrip," that is, orders on the Treasurer for the amount owing each individual. As the Treasurer cannot honor them, having no greenbacks, they are partered to the shavers of the city, by these creditors of the city, at a discount of from 15 to 25 per cent., and this issue takes the place of the old that may have been paid to the Treasurer for Taxes. Every officer of the city is subjected to this shaving process. Well, what is the consequence? Responsible day police cannot live for less than $50 per month. They get $60 per month in "script" and are fortunate if they find an individual who will pay $50 for the $60 order. The same rule works with the night police, the day laborers, the lumber sellers, and any person who deals with the city. If cash was paid all these persons, the discount or shave submitted to, could be saved by the city, and a reduction of wages and prices paid made by our city authorities. As it is, dealers in city scrip are the only | jan 11-11

Mr. Battle's proposition, in your paper of Sunday, is the solution of our difficulties. Let us fund into bonds this floating debt of the city and provide means to pay the interest and create a sinking fund to pay them when due, and forbid under heavy penalty the Commissioners expending one dollar more than can be raised by taxation under the law as now limited. By this means, taxes will be paid in cash, employees will be paid in cash, labor, grain, timber, &c., can be bought for cash, and the per cent now added because scrip is received will not be added to city bills. A reduction of 20 per cent. can be made in city expenses, for salaries, labor, timber, &c., if the floating debt is funded. The funding of the debt will affect no person injuriously except the "snavers," or dealers in city scrip who at present live and profit by dealing therein. The funding of SUPREME COURT.—This tribunal the floating debt will break up the net vesterday morning at the usual profitable business of numerous shylocks who are now fattening upon the necessities of city employees.

The News having contained a full account of the trial and other incidents connected with the Baker-Wilfong murder. It is only necessary to give the following particulars of his tragic end, as reported by our special correspondent on the spot, and sent us last night by telegraph: CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 16.

RALEIGH NEWS:—Joseph Baker, a white man, aged about 35 years, was executed here to-day for the murder of a negro, named Newton Wilfong, on the 17th of Eebruary, 1873. The homicide was committed under circumstances of intoxication, and was both unpremeditated and without motive. The stabbing details being uninteresting. Baker at his first trial was sentenced to be hanged on the 20th of June last, but an appeal being taken to the Supreme Court of the State, which tribunal affirmed the decision of the Court below. He was re-sentenced to be executed on the 19th December last. By a successful and desperate escape he again evaded the scaffold, but was recaptured and respited to January 2nd. A further respite was th granted till to-day. An hour before the execution, his mother, wife, brothers and sisters took a final farewell. At 1 p. m. he walked down the stairs of the jail and resolutely the special pleader, who has an eye to the "main chance." Now, what are the facts in regard to this question? Over one year ago, shrill voice, he made a fervent appeal to the Throne of Grace for mercy to his soul. After this the noose and black cap were adjusted, the rope by port the amount of the debt of the city of Raleigh—that is, how much cut, and Baker fell about two feet. Strangulation then did its work. funded and floating debt-the bond | His struggles lasted about three minutes. In twenty minutes life was extinct, and after hanging half an hour the body was cut down, placed in a plain pine coffin and turned over to his friends for interment. There was a large crowd present, but only about forty persons were admitted to witness the execution, which, in acwe mean bonds running one, two and | cordance with the law, was private.

Senator Norwood on the State Debt.

We publish this morning a portion of the admirable address of Senator JNO. W. NORWOOD, of Orange, upon the public debt of the State, delivered in the Senate on the 16th of Decem- to it I reserve for a general view of ber last. Having published the views | the whole subject, which I desire to of Senator Worth, we give place to those of Mr. Norwood in order that this important question may be seen in all its bearings.

The consideration of the measure was the special order in the Senate yesterday at 1 o'clock.

Charlotte and Philadelphia.

North Carolina will never have a natural resources and advantages than at the National Centennial at Philadelphia, on the 4th of July,

As auxiliary to this, it has been proposed to hold a North Carolina Centennial at Charlotte, on the 20th and as by the provisions of this bill, of May, 1875, at which are to be exhibited all the evidences of the State's progress in the arts and sciences, together with the best specimens of gether with the best specimens of bond for his old one, according to the her mineral and agricultural wealth per centage allowed to the class, to and greatness.

The Raleigh News has zealously advocated the holding of the Charlotte Centennial, and will continue to do so, until it shall become apparent that our citizens feel no interest in the subject.

We have ample time now, if we go to work at once. We trust our cotemporaries will join with us in urging the people of the State to awaken to the importance of making the North Carolina Centennial the greatest exhibition we have ever had in our bor-

Mr. Cushing.

Our readers know that the nomination of Mr. Cushing for Chief Justice has been withdrawn, and that lie Treasurer, before he is allowed to the pretext upon which the President acted was the finding of a letter, by a satisfactory guarantee, that all written by Mr. Cushing to Mr. Jef- the bonds shall come in and be ex-FERSON DAVIS, in 1861, which letter contained some sort of recognition of a dissolution of the Union. We say pretext, for the indications now are that the reason assigned was not the real cause of the withdrawal. Mr. Cushing's nomination met with strong opposition from many leading Republicans, in and out of the Senate. These men acknowledged his ability and his fitness by reason of like character, to this bill, but far legal learning and experience for an more important and fatal. acceptable discharge of the duties of the high office to which he had been the pear of any gentleman who had been mentioned in connection with the position, and yet they stubbornly resisted his confirmation. Why? In The true reason, we suspect, may be found in the fact that Mr. CUSHING had one time been a Democrat, holding pronounced views upon the question of States Rights and kindred subjects, and they feared that not even the knowledge that he owed his elevation to the appointment of a Republican President, and the confirmation of a Republican Senate could constrain him to give a decision other than such as his judgment approved. They knew the iniquitous character of much of the legislation had since to submit any questions arising out of the Supreme Court of North Carolisuch measures to the crucial test of na, in the case of University Railhonest legal judgment. Hence the opposition to Mr. Cushing, and the pressure strong enough to force the President to recall a nomination which had commended itself to the good sense of the whole country.

Repeal of the Salary Bill.

Congress has at last yielded to the demands of the country by the repeal of the Act of March 3rd, 1873, popularly known as the Salary bill. This was effected on Tuesday last, by the concurrence of the House of Representatives in the Senateamendments to the original House Bill. The pay of members is now the same as that received prior to the increase last year. It is to be regretted that this action of the National Legislature was not more speedily done, and that the Republic was brought into discredit by the aeri monious debate which preceded the repeal. However, the repeal has been had, the voice of the people has been the past few days would alter his in- heeded, and a statute odious beyond all others of a decade has ceased to tention of accepting the mission to have operation.

Now let Congress do something tangible and sensible with the finances, and much may be forgiven it.

The vote in the House on the Senate amendment was 226 yeas to 25 nays. Those voting in the negative were Messrs. Albert, Averill, BARRY, CLYMER, COX, CROSSLAND, HAYS, HAYNES, KELLEY, KENDALL, LAMISON, MOREY, NEGLEY, PRATT, of Virginia, RANDALL, SHANKS, SLOSS, STANFORD, STORM, STOR-RELL, TODD, WADDELL, WHITE, WHITLEY and WILLIAMS, of Indiana. Of these Mr. WADDELL, only is from North Carolina. We no hurry to take this leap in the dark. regret to see Col. WADDELL thus place himself in opposition to the wishes and feelings of his people. For whatever may be his own opinion of his vote for the original bill, it is unquestionably true that it met the condemnation of a large majority of the people of the State, and in deference to their sentiments a graceful submission would have been becoming in him.

Speech of Senator John W. Norwood. Delivered in the Senate of North Carolina, on Tuesday, Dec. 16th, 1873, on the subject of the State Debt.

Mr. President: I have two objections to the bill under consideration, which in my opinion, ought to prevent its passage. Other objections take, in support of the amendment, which I had the honor to offer as a substitute for the bill.

First. This bill assuming the State to be insolvent, proposes with $6,000,-000, to pay off something over $22, 000,000, of our debt, which reaches nearly $40,000,000, and for that purpose, it divides the holders of our bonds, for that amount, of debt into three classes. The first and favored class, holding bonds to the amount of $3,632,better opportunity of advertising her | 200, are to be paid fifty cents in the dollar. The second class, holding bonds to the amount of $7,259,460, are to receive thirty cents in the dollar, and the third class, holding bonds to the amount of $11,181,687, are to receive twenty cents in the dollar.

Now as the entire debt of $22,000,000 consists of State bonds of $1,000 each; each and every one of these bond holders, is allowed to come in separately to your Public Treasurer and demand and receive a new, a good which it belongs: Now suppose, only one-half of the bonds making this $22,000,000 of debt, shall thus be presented and exchanged; what I ask, will be the consequence to the State: Simply this. You will have incurred a new and valid debt stronger even than the special tax bonds of $3,000. 000, and you will have imposed an additional annual tax of $180,000 upon the people; which will be already levied by the law creating it, and beyond your power to recall, alter, or change; and yet there will remain against us outstanding and unpaid, $11,000,000 or one-half of this same debt. For one I am not willing to make such a bargain. And I cannot believe the people will sanction such a financial scheme.

Sir, let the friends of this bill amend it, by requiring all the bonds representing the entire debt, of $22,-000,000, to be first filed with the Pubissue a single new bond. Or at the changed on the terms offered by the bill. We will then have some security against cruel disappointment; a heavy burden of increased taxation; heavy burden of increased taxation; in this comprehensive statement of and an entire failure to restore the our losses by the war? I will enumeredit of the State, in the money markets of the world. The Senator from Randolph has no hesitation in assuring us that all the bond-holders will agree to the compromise, then they are all ready to come forward with their bonds. Let them do it.

Sir, there is another objection of a There is another large class of State bonds outstanding against us, which are not embraced in this bill at all. nominated. They knew him to be I mean the special tax bonds, amounting in principal money alone to $11,-400,000, with several millions of past due interest upon them, and increasing annually at the rate of $684,000. the very forcible speech which the Senator from Randolph (Mr. Worth) made in support of his bill, he denounced these special tax bonds as fraudulent and void, and had no fear that any court would ever enforce them against us; and therefore he left them out of his bill. The Senator f.om Mecklenburg (Mr. Waring) asks me if I think, there is any mode by which these special tax bonds can be collected; and if so, how it can be accomplished. I had just reached that very point, and will proceed to answer our ruined condition, they have no the inquiry. As an individual, I sufficient trust and confidence in the believe these bonds to be unconstitutional and void, and join in the condemnation of them fraudulent and infamous. the war; they knew, too, that possi- But sir, my opinion or the solemn bly the failing fortunes of their party | declaration of this General Assembly

I have the case before me and refer Senators particularly to the opinion of Judge Settle, in which he condenses the opinions of the other three associate Judges and agrees with them in pronouncing the bonds to be constitutional and valid. Here is the voice of the highest Judicial Tribunal in the State, declaring the bonds to be good. And but a few days ago, here in the city of Raleigh, the Circuit Court of the United States followed the lead of our Supreme Court, and declared the bonds to be good, and declared further that the act of the General Assembly which repealed the Act creating the bonds, was itself unconstitutional and void. But supposing the Courts do hold them to be good, by what process I am asked, can they be possibly collected? Sir, I answer the question with a feeling of concern almost amounting to terror. By the very acts of the Legislature by which that $11,400,000 of our State debt is created, an actual levy is made upon all the real and personal taxable property of the State, of 1 of 1 per cent, to pay the annual interest during the whole period of 30 years which they have to run, to be collected as other taxes are collected. And Sir, it is by law made the business and duty of the Auditor to have that tax collected as other taxes are collected. And it is done simply by adding another column to his tax schedule, when he issues it to the Sheriffs of the State. That little act, of one man, is all that saves the people of the State from the collection or the attempted collection of this enormous and most iniquitous tax. By a single hair the fatal sword is suspended over us. And at this very moment, we are threatened with new suits to compel the collection of this interest. Sir, let us wait a little longer, and be in And when we do act, let us consider well and deliberately what we are about, and make a sure and safe business of it, and not make the terrible baulk, which I fear this bill would lead us into; by imposing an additional heavy weight of taxation upon the people, and after it has been done, still leave such an enormous load of public debt hanging over them, as will be sufficient to crush them down to the earth, and inevitably prevent the restoration of our public credit, and as effectually prevent the renovation of our prosperity as a State, the great objects which we have in

THE SUBSTITUTE FOR THE BILL. I will now proceed to the consideration of the amendment which I have had the honor to offer as a substitute for the bill under discussion. These resolutions affirm four propositions:

1. That the people are so much impoverished by the war as to be unable, at the present time, by taxation, to pay any part of the public debt. II. That our new State Government imposes as heavy a burden of taxation upon the people as they can bear in their present impoverished circumstances. III. That the people of North Carolina are not responsible for the late war, or its calamitous consequen-

IV. That the General Government, should assume the payment of so much of our public debt, as in justice and equity, ought to be paid. Or at least, should lend to the State such financial aid and credit as will enable us to provide for the total extinction of the debt, upon just and reasonable terms, without oppressing the people.

OUR LOSSES BY THE WAR. First Proposition. The people are so much impoverised by the war as to be unable at the present time, by taxation, to pay any part of their Public Debt.

Sir, is this true? Allow me to read a paragraph, from the able statement of our public debt, which is presented so us by the Public Treasurer, in his annual Report, and will be found on tenth page: "I have already stated, says the Public Treasurer, these losses which are demonstrated by the present condition of the investments entered into by the State. It is not necessary to add to the list the enormous destruction of our property by the war; the annihilation of our system of labor, the ruin of our wealthiest people by the abolition of slavery the death or disabling of multitudes of our young men in battle or by disease; the sweepinp away of our personal property, our horses, our cattle, our farming implements; the deterioration of our lands. It is not necessary to call to mind the effects on a half ruined people, of the finan-cial troubles of 1867, and the present year. Every fair minded man will admit, that if ever a State can be justified in demanding that creditors should abate a part of their demands; proportioned to losses, unforeseen by both parties, at the time of the creation of the debt, that State is North Carolina.'

Sir, what are the items embraced erate some of them: Let us estimate the loss of 331,000 slaves worth in 1860 Bank Currency at $200,000,000

Yes sir, we may put down our material loss, at not less than $300,000,-000. But by what rule will you arrive at the loss to the State of the thousands of the flower of her youth, and the prime of her manhood who fell in battle, or lingered out their lives in prisons and hospitals; and by what rule will you estimate the public loss to the State, arising from the annual emigration of large numbers of our most public spirited energetic and valuable citizens, reluctantly leaving their native State with all its strong ties and memories behind them, to fight the great battle of life in strange lands, because, from belief that North Carolina can again regain her former prosperity?

But we must add to this dark and terrible enumeration of losses and calamities one other, greater than all might require the enactment of other measures violative of the Constitumeasures violative and they feared to that effect will not reneve us in this great emergency. The Daily Graphic has been examining the doings of the swindling firms which infest New York. It is singular what an amount of credulity these rogues find to live upon. It is a capital that is apparently inex-haustible. What kind of mind the rural Western man has who expects to get a watch worth twenty dollars for an expenditure of two dollars it is difficult to discern. The fish bite, however, at the nakedest bait; and the result is a perpetual catch. Either having been once swindler, or the crop of mbeciles is amazing. In one month ten thousand letters have passed through the New York postoffice, containing on an average one dollar each. The sawdust swindle, the five-dollar sewing machine fraud, the lottery schemes, the counterfeit money dodge, and a hundred others, received their proportion. The police have a "black list" of seven hundred names and aliases of swindling firms and nearly every day adds to it. Some of these rascals are as hard to hold as so many eels, and have been traced for months without avail.

Petersburg, Va., December 17th, 1873. To the Farmers and Guano Dealers of North Carolina and Virginia: Gentlemen: To the mary of you with whom I am personally acquainted. I would say, that of good results from GUANAHANI GUANO, I have not the shadow of a doubt. Containing, as it does, in such large amounts, the essentials for plant food, success from its application would seem certain. It being of animal origin, you will see at once that its ingredients must be all soluble in the soil. Its nitrogen, from nitric acid, is the most available form known to chemistry; the other part, from undecomposed animal matter, is preferable to the voiatile salts in Peruvian Guano. I ask of each of you the kindness of a thorough examination of the accompanying analyses by two of the great charm.

Dear Sir: Dr. F. A. Genth, whose Analysis of the Guanahani Guano you have shown me is Chemical Minerologis to the Geological Survey, and has no superior as a chemist. I have no hesitation in endorsing any analysis from his laboratory. And I think the analysis justifies his statement that the substance examined by him is a VALUABLE MANURE. From his report, and that of Prof. Wilson, it is evidently a TRUE GUANO, both in origin and composition, and its action on crops may be expected to be the same in kind and in degree, proportion to its relative per centage of the valuable ingredients—Phosphoric Acid, Ammonia and Potash, that of the first being unusually high.

Yours truly,

ANALYSES. The following analyses of different cargoes and samples by two of the leading chemists of the country, are given for the guidance of the public: LETTER OF PROF. P. B. WILSON, LATE ASSISTANT OF BARON J. VON LIEBIG. CHEMICAL LABORATORY OF PROF. P. B. WILSON, No. 30 Second Street,

Baitimore, December 1st, 1873, MAJ. N. M. TANNOR, President Guanahani Guano Company, Petersburg, Va.:

Dear Sir: I have drawn samples of the Guano, as it has arrived in cargo lots, and find it exceedingly uniform in the amount of Phosphoric Acid it contains, namely, from 15 to 19 per cent. This is combined with Lime, and is of animal origin, and readily assimilable by plants. It contains potential ammonia and nitric acid, having a combined Nitrogen value equal to from 2 to 3 per cent, of ammonia, with the alkalies Potash and Soda, and valuable proposition of sulphate of Line. The whole forming a very desirable combination for all crops, and when applied to land, the crop receiving proper tillage, must, in my opinion, give as good results as any guano offered to the farmer.

Being on animal origin, the organite matter has undergone partial decomposition, and it necessarily contains a valuable amount of Humus, which makes its fertilizing power much greater than fertilizer—which are compounded large yof Peruvian Guano, which, beyond its ammonia and small phosphatic value, has little are no power in absorbing from the atmosphere and retaining in the soil the movable elements absorbed by moisture and brenght down by the rains, as the guano you are now placing upon the market All of the components of this Guano are very soluble in the soil, and passes such physical properties as to render it at all times and under all circumstances as in mediately Baltimore, December 1st, 1873. sical properties as to render it at all times and ut der all circumstances as in mediately

The late samples you sent me f r analysis, from the deposit which you inform me you intend to ship from, show a dec ease in the phosphatic value, but a large increase in its nitreges compounds. I think, however, from orevious observations of carcoes, that you may reasonably expect, that cargoes taken from where these an pies were drawn, will materially improved in the saline compounds, (phosphates alkaliss and magnetia.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, WEST PHILADELPHIA, 19th, 1878. Maj. N. M. Taannor, Petersburg, Va.,

DEAR SIR: In compliance with your request, I have analyzed sample of "Guanahani Guano," and have made additional exam nation of an average sample from a lot of 300 tons, the result of which, I beg to embrace in the following. The Guano is a brownish powder, with lumps of combinations of lime with Carboule. Phosphoric and Nitric acids, It contains a considerable quantity of water (about 20 per cent.), and when dried is a paler brown powder. The Guano is evidently of animal origin, and the minute bones, which were discovered in the same, indicate that it is the result of the decay of bats mice, &c. The quantity of organic matter, which is still present, is about 12 per cent., and this yields about 2 per cent, of ammonia. A portion of the nitrogen is present, as nitric acid, of which about 3 per cent, wa found. All the nitrogen present would be equivalent to about 3 per cent, of ammonia. The phosphoric acid in the Guano about 12 per cent. of bone pho phate. A considerable quantity of the phosphoric acid, however, is present, as so-called neutral phosphate of lime, which, being slightly solvide in water, renders the Guano as quick in its action as a corresponding quantity of superphosphate would do. The small per centage of potesh, which was found in the analysis, adds to its value.

From all the experiments which I have made of the Guanahani Guano, no doubt can exist that it is a valuable manure.

Yours truly,

Respectfully, etc.,

F. A. GENTH.

Dear Sir: I used your Guano on my wheat last fall, and I am highly pleased with it. Think it is as good as the high priced Guanos. I have a good paying crop of wheat, and the best stand of grass I ever had, and this is the opinion of those who have seen both, not withstanding the unfavorable winter and early spring. I shall use it again this fall. Yours,

E. T. Wroth, Esq., Baltimore, Md.,

Dear Sir: I nave your lavor of 4th inst., making inquiries as to the results from application of the Guano which you sent me last fail. I applied it at the rate of 170 pounds per acre—the same quantity as of the other fertilizers I was then using. The wheat throughout the field bore much the same general appearance, with perhaps something in favor of your Guano. The grain of my crop on that field wasgenerally of fine quality, and I cannot say that I observed any perceptible difference in its appearance.

The result in quantity, (the most important point.) I regret not to be able to give you. Threshing my crop by steam power, my attention was occupied at many points at the same time, and on one of these occasions this particular parcel of wheat was threshed before I was aware of it, and without any rote of fits a mparative yield. I therefore cannot pronounce positively in its favor, over others; but, from its general appearance, I judge it quite equal to other standard tertilizers of established reputation.

Very respectfully yours.

WM. R. Griffith, Esq., General Agent,
In reply to yours of the 12th, will say, the farmers can say but little, as yet, in regard to Guanahani Guano. But Maj A. G. Davis, who used one bag, by the side of several other fertilizers, says, so lar, the Guanahani looks better than any of the others. All parties say, so far, they can see no difference in their grain wherever it is up sufficient to judge. By the spring, I can give you a more satisfactory report. Hoping to have the pleasure of a visit from you, soon,

I am, truly yours, W. H. B. DORSEY. P. S.-I have commenced making a stir for the Spring trade. San Marino, Dinwiddie Co., Va., November 15th, 1873. W. R. GRIFFITH, Esq., Dear Sir: Yours of the 12th inst., was received on yesterday, and, in compliance with your request, I hasten to reply. I purchased half ton of Guanahani Gua o, from Messrs. Rowlett & Tannor, 1st of October, 1s73, to use upon my wheat crop, as an experiment. I applied it 20) ibs, per acre, The wheat was seeded from the 10th to the 17th of October I was very careful in the application, leaving two strips of land through the field; one of an acre, the other two acres. The one scre strip was manured with * Phosphate. The two acre strip was in tobacco, heavily manured with stable manure and *  Tobacco Fertilizer. I also sdded a strip of very psor land (stubble) on one end, three-fifths of an acre. Upon this I applied 100 lbs. of Guanahani, and also moistened the wheat and rolled it in the Guano. (I mean the wheat sown upon this three fifths strip.) The season has been favorable, and the young wheat is looking very well; and that upon the narrow strip of poor land, equally as good as upon the heavily manused tobacco land. I am satisfied hat the Guano is acting upon this strip of wheat, as the land was very poor. I do not think that it would be well for me to make a positive assertion just yet, bu will carefully note the result and let you hear from me again.

Yours respectfully.

Yours respectfully. Kingston, Dinwiddle Co., Va., November 28th, 1873, Messrs. Rowlett & Tannor.

Dear Sirs: In reply to your inquiries in regard to the Guanahani Guaro, which I purchased last summer, I can only say that I applied it on my wheat crop, sowing it breadcast and plowed it in with the wheat. So far I am vary much pleased with the Guano. Where I used it, the wheat looks better than any I have seen, and my neighbor a who have seen it, consider it so. I applied it the first of October, and it shows very plainly over the wheat where there was neithing used. over the wheat where there was nothing used. Very respectfully. [Notz.-Mr. Mitchell has since ordered 10 tons for his Spring crops]

Mulstone Landing, Md., December 1st, 1873. Dear Sir I am just in receipt of your letter, but regret that I did not receive it sooner. I used your Guano side by side with * * * * * 's Ammoniated Super-Phosphate, and could perceive no difference, only in growth of the straw. The straw from * * * * * 's rather the largest. The grass from it was equally as good, and I do not hesitate in recommending it to faitness as a reliable fet there.

Very respectfully, Dinwiddle County, Va., November 21st, 1873. Messrs, McILWAINE & Co., Petersburg, Va., Messrs, McHwaine & Co., retersourg, va.,

Hear Sins: I used on my wheat, sowed about the list of October, a half ton of Guana-hani Guano, and a far i am very much pleased with its action. Where I used the Guanahani tre wheat is took ng remarkably well—a great deal better than the wheat sown on a pea fillow. Very respectfully,

Pri ce George Coun y Va, i ee mber 18th. 873. Masts, B shop & B A CH, Mosts, Benor & Beanch, Sirs: You ask nearly to hid to the Guan hant Guano I puschased of you last fall, i used the mane or my wheat, but owing to the maneverable fact for the growth of wheat, it would be hopes be to some accurate a show its strength fully. However, I think the guan on good erthiz refrem the fact, that the wheat looks as well as it goes where a well-known tertained was used that does nearly double the messey.

Respectfully,

Petersburg, Va., December 16th, 1873, WM. R. Griffith, General Agent of the Guanahani Guano Company, Dear of In reply to your enquiry and the action of the Guanahani Guano on my wheat crop, I would say, up to the present time it is looking very well.

Yours truly,

SAMUEL H. JONES, Frince George County, Va. Broad Run Station, Fauquier County, Va., December 4th, 1873.

Mr. E. A. Dunlar.

Dear Sir: I let one row without your 'ertilizer, and used it on the next row. I used at the rate of 200 pounds to the acre. I had the corn care uity gathered separate, and found the result as follows: From the Guano row I shelled one tushel and nearly a half gation; from the row without guano. I got a half bushel and not quite a quart; making fully double where I used guano. The growth of stalk was not proportionately heavy—the strength seemed to go to the grain. I think it an excellent spring fertilizer. The land I tried it on was quite thin. Yours, &c., A. D SMITH.

Poplar Mount, Greensville County, Va., December 17th, 1873. Gentlemen: Yours of the 15th is received. You ask "How I like the Guanahani Guano, so far?" Guano, so far?"

In reply I have to say that I used five bags last fall, experimentally. I applied four bags to wheat at the rate of 200 pounds to the acre. I used the same quantity (200 pounds) on winter oats. The wheat was not sown until about the 20th of October, but has already a healthy, vigorous blade. The present indications lead me to believe that it is decidedly superior to any of the super-phosphates.

The winter oats we essewn the last of September. In the application to this crop, I have, in consequence of earlier seeding, a better opportunity of observing the effect of the Guanahani Guano. Here it is most marked and decided. It reminds me of former dys, when, for a noderate outlay of money, the farmer purchased the pure Chincha Island. (unadulterated) Peruvian Guano.

I wish to try some of this Guano next year on cotton and tobacco.

I am, very truly yours,

GEORGE W. FIELU. The Company recommend an application of from 200 to 250 pounds per acre, but not over the larger amount.

As it will be impossible to bring but few thousand thins to this country in time for the spring irade, orders must be sent at an early day to secure it.

Consolidation Again. Messrs. Editors: Truth as well as murder will out. This most disinterested bill which was to grind nobody's axe (oh! no, certainly not,) is now claimed by W. A. Smith as his bill, in a long and rather bad tempered letter to the Western Expositor of the 15th inst. The Honorable gentleman has also vindicated his feelings by revoking all passes heretofore granted to members of the Legislature over his road as a punishment for voting against his bill. We were told when the bill was up that the object was to complete the road through to the State line. The opponents of the measure charged that it was a Pennsylvania Central R. R. bill, that the object was to stalk through a covert provision to change the guage from Greensboro to Charlotte and to allow Smith and party to manipulate the bondsmerely this and nothing more. All this was denied by the friends of the measure, many of whom, if not all, were honest and knew not verily what they did. Now, Smith loses his temper, shows his hand, claims the parentage of the bill and says in his letter, "The very essence of the bill, after arranging the bouds all right, was the change of guage." For once, Major Smith, you have told the truth. The object of the bill was the change of guage and the manipula-tion of the bonds. It was well known by you and your friends that not one foot of road in Western North Carolina would ever be built under this bill. You never had any such intention. The Consolidation Bill you thought a cunningly devised fable to stalk through a change of guage for Tom Scott and the Penntylvania Central, and you thought too it would be well to have the handling of some bonds for your private delectation. I again quote Major Smith's confession "the very essence of the bill after arranging the bonds was the change of the guage." Ah! we the people were told that the essence of the b ll was to build a road to the Tennessee line. Did you and your friends actually have the impudence to ask North Carolina to give up her $3,000,000 in the North Carolina Railroad for a bill whose essence was to allow the Pennsylvania Central to bisect the State by changing the guage from Charlotte to Greensboro, and to allow you to "arrange" some roads? The change of guage was made dependent Senator Flemming's amendment) upon your good faith to be shown by completing the road to Asheville, and your "arrangement" of bonds was hindered by appointment of a committee to handle the bonds for you. Therefore you revoke all the passes heretofore given to disobedient members who have voted against your wishes, and ask for amendments to allow you to perfect your original purposes. As you have attempted to effect your nearious designs by appealing to the patriotic wish of the State to complete the Western North Carolina Railroad, and as you have bolstered up your cause by enlisting most honorable men in favor of your bill, I wish to say, 1st, that I a n

friendly to the completion of the Western North Carolina Railroad, and oppose this bill because I am satisfied it is a delusion, and a snare, and would most effectually prevent that road from ever being built. 2d. That I mean no reflection upon any party or parties who have favored this bill save yourself and your backers, the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Ring. These gentlemen were honest and sincere, and are only to blame in allowing themselves to be duped by you. Allow me to ask you a few questions, though probably you will refuse to answer because it may criminate you. 1st. Was not bankruptey proper, and winding it up by the Trustees and Committee of in September last? 2nd. Was it not understood that of the $800,000, Sibley was to receive $400,000 for the Pennsylvania Central Railroad? 3rd. Was not the Pennsylvania Central to pay you, Sir, $200,000 of language of Oakes Ames) where it would do the most good, to aid in maturing this bill? 4th. What effect was the possession of the Railroad from Morehead City to Charlotte and Old Fort, to have upon your nomination and election as Radical candidate for Governor at the next election? There are some proofs on these heads which the public will one day have, and if you will condescend to put yourself upon the witness stand, we will do you the kindness to cau-tion you to answer, not hastily or angrily, but truthfully. Though you may resent it, that one who has been so long a stranger to you should write you so lengthy a letter, still I will subscribe myself,
